President's Report

On Saturday our Amateur League and Premier League teams played round three of their competition, and Sunday morning saw our women's teams play their second round of games. Our women's AL6 team are traveling well, with a clean sheet so far - 7 goals for, none against. It's early days, but their two wins and +7 goal difference put them at the top of the table. This is where both our AL5 teams are to be found too. The AL5 Reserves in particular boast some impressive statistics - 28 goals for and only 4 against. For those who like to follow the results, they're all available at www.mwfa.com - click the 'Competitions' link. There you can see future fixtures ('Draw'), Results and Standings for your team or all Narrabeen teams, depending on what you select in the drop-down boxes.

On the MWFA website you'll also find a link to The Soccer Post which may have been arriving in your mailboxes too. I make no apology for stealing this story from "Mossy's Mumblings" in case you haven't read The Soccer Post:

"GOOAAAL: NARRABEEN stalwart Lance Rogan is a man of his word – and a great bloke to boot! Despite spending the best part of the last six months in a Ryde rehabilitation centre after a major operation to rectify a life-threatening bleed on his brain late last year, he stayed true to a promise to watch his nephew James and the Beanies go around in their first home game of the MWFA Premier League at "The Palace" (Sydney Institute of Sport) last Saturday. It came just days after he was released to go home full-time. Mumblings speaks for everyone when we say "WELCOME HOME LANCE"! His incredible wife Nikki and kids Jarrah, Jet and Tex are over the moon to have him back where he belongs."

For the full run-down on football stories across the peninsula, check out the MWFA website > Soccerpost.

Lastly a reminder that there are no games on Anzac Day morning; mens teams play in the afternoon on Saturday and our women's junior and senior teams play on Sunday. Good luck to our Premier League team in what's likely to be a tough fixture against CC Strikers on Saturday afternoon at the Sydney Academy of Sport, and to all our teams playing, have a great game!

NFC Vice-President

Premier League

PL v Mosman Lost 2-3

A game that showed that the opposition each week this season are going to tough and you need to produce your A game every week or you will be punished. This is precisely what happened especially with the odd player showing ill discipline to finish with only 10 players 2 weeks running hopefully its a wake up call to improve to what the team knows it is capable of and make up for it this weekend coming with a home game at the Academy this weekend.

PL Reserve v Mosman Lost 0-2

O35/3 v Curl Curl Won 3-1

A hungry Narrabeen Team took the field anxious to capitalise on recent form. One hard fought win and one 'should never have been loss', the 35/3s were ready for whatever CCYC had to offer. The senior men from Narrabeen were soon on top after Charlie Hudy's pass to the CCYC's keeper was fumbled into the back of the net, well, across the line at any rate. One nil at half time was never to be enough. An easy goal to the visitors after 25 minutes of the second term had NYC eager to get back in front. With the wind at our backs, Davin Foster's keeper clearances kept us up their end. Charlie Higginson put the result beyond doubt. A hard fought win slightly tarnished by a serious looking injury to Pete Shilling. All the best for a swift recovery, Pete.

O35/5 v Pittwater RSL Lost 0-7

O35/5 v Avalon Lost 0-4
