President's Report

Congratulations to our U11/5 team, who after a rough old season managed a 2-2 draw against Avalon on Saturday morning, with the assistance of three borrowed players from the under-9s. I'm told it was as good as a win after rather a large defeat the previous weekend!

On Sunday morning our W12/2 team conceded their first goals of the season - two against Avalon, in a 2-all draw. I heard the girls were quite disappointed about letting a couple of goals through in the final round of the competition, but finishing unbeaten, at the top of the table, is an incredible achievement! 27 goals for, 2 against - a goal difference of +2. Good luck to the girls in their semi-final (against Avalon again) this Sunday morning at Grahams Reserve, kick-off 10:30.

Another must-see game this weekend will be the top of the table clash between Narrabeen U16/2s and Wakehurst. Wakehurst are currently in first place with 35 points, Narrabeen second with 33 points, so this game will decide the major premiership. Get down to Boondah 1 for an 8:30 kick-off on Saturday morning to cheer them on.

More dramas in the U14/3 competition - Narrabeen 14/3s are in a similar position to our 16/2s, two points behind the leaders Manly Vale, and they're playing Manly Vale on Saturday! This one's at Millers Reserve, Manly Vale's home ground, so I'm sure the team would appreciate some support - 8:30 kick-off on Millers 1.

Rounding off a great season for our womens teams, our W11/1, W18/2 and W-AL4 teams all play in semi-finals on Sunday too. Good luck to them, and all our other junior and senior teams playing in their final round of the competition this weekend, before semi-finals and finals over the next two weeks.

Sub Juniors

Under 6

The stars played a great game on Saturday, all players are performing better and better as the season progresses. Well done to James for playing an awesome match and scoring 3 goals, well done to Shea for some good tackling and kicking the ball to your teammates, and for being this weeks 'player of the week' well done enjoy the glory. Well done also to Milo, Levi and Jackson for some good defending and running the ball up our end. Only 2 matches left, 'Go the Stars'.

Under 8

Condors v CC Strikers Aloisis Won 9-3

This was perhaps the Condors best display of the season. For the first few minutes The Strikers attacked, and hit the post and Joel saved a couple. From then it was all the Condors. Slick passing, and great running allowed Jaden to 6 goals for the day, well done Jaden!. Joel came out from goal in the second half and notched 3 goals.

Jett went in goal for the second half and saved a number of shots. he is becoming a very good goalkeeper. Harry had a great game, running everywhere and was almost awarded a goal, but the shot hit the post and was grabbed by the goalie on the line. Liam is growing game by game, and also hit the post, he goes on some great runs. Conner is enjoying his game and likes to tackle. Doohan also tackles strongly and does not allow the opposition to create much. Overall it was a great team performance. MOM: Liam, encouragement awards: Harry & Jaden

Kookaburras v CC Strikers    Lost 1-5

First half saw Luke kept busy in goals with some great saves. Daniel did some fantastic defense moves even when missing a shoe. Good positioning from Zander. Second half Ben had a quieter time in goals thanks to good attacking by Gabby and some great tackling by Gemma. Over all the team worked well together with some great positioning and teamwork. Congratulations to our player of the match Daniel.

Juniors

Under 10

U10/2 v Pittwater                      Won 4-1

U10/3 v Avalon                              Drew 0-0

Under 11

U11/1 v Avalon Won 3-2
 U11/5 v Avalon Drew 2-2

A great start to the game with an almost goal from Angus, not long after it was a beautiful kick from Jack from the sidelines. The whole team defending well, we were ready for a win. With 1 goal each at half time the hunger was there, there was to be no loss today. Vaughn, Tom & James were borrowed to help us out as we were 3 down, so a big thank you boys you were a great asset to our game today. Jason & Daniel did their usual great job in goals, and with the game coming to a close end, Vaughn came in and put that ball right where it needed to go, straight into goals, it bought the score to 2 all, so so close for a win, but a draw just as good, absolutely great effort by all.

Under 12

U12/2 v Forest Killarney Won 3-1

Under 13

U13/3 v Forest Killarney Won 2-0

Under 14

U14/3 v St Augustines Won 2-0

Under 16

U16/2 v Pittwater Won 2-0

A scrappy game, partly due to Pittwater not being able to make the finals and Narrabeen not being able to finish them off. Pittwater's keeper played well, but we should have buried them by at least 7 or 8 goals. Matt extremely solid up front and Tim finally got a goal - well done. Next week we must totally raise our game and muscle and outplay them in midfield. Our possible key to success, good luck and well done!
